Maredsous

Considered to be amongst the best of abbey beers, Maredsous is clean tasting, very drinkable and the authentic beer of the Benedictine monks of the Abbey of Maredsous in the Belgian Ardennes.

Maredsous Blonde

A delectable Blonde ale with sprightly fruitiness, soft malting, and a slightly dry, gently-hopped finish.

Maredsous Dubbel

Rich mahogany-brown Dubbel ale with a delicate body and creamy head. A velvety taste with subtle hints of dark fruit, chocolate, and toffee.

Maredsous Tripel

A golden-bodied Belgian Triple with a creamy body and luscious head. A strong alcohol content complete with a balanced, long and warming finish.

brewery information

Maredsous Abbey beers are brewed using the original Benedictine monks' recipe under close supervision of the Abbey community and a generous part of their profits is donated to charity.
